Introduction

This document defines the summary information for the Awarding Body Linkage (ABL) process at UCAS. It contains information regarding the examination boards and results we will be processing during the current application cycle. It also highlights the grades expected to be received, and the examination level codes used for processing to identify individual results.

This document is for both the staff at your course provider, and your technical suppliers to be able to set up their systems accordingly to process these examination results.

Changes for Awarding Body Linkage (ABL) exam results processing 2016

Overview

Awarding Body Linkage (ABL) process for summer 2016 results

We are pleased to inform you, we will be processing additional examination results and passing those results on to you. Please make sure you take note of the new awards being processed. Their inclusion will necessitate reference data changes to be implemented on your systems by this summer.

Important reminders

Advanced Welsh Baccalaureate

We will collect two grades for the interim Welsh Baccalaureate again this year – Pass overall, and grades A* to C.

P = overall Diploma pass

A* = Advanced Welsh Baccalaureate core grade

The new Advanced Welsh Baccalaureate Core is graded A* to C, with each grade attracting 120 Tariff points.

Grades available are:

- PA*
- PA
- PB
- PC

AS reformed

From 2015 first teaching, the AS element of reformed A levels in England will be decoupled – this means the AS will be optional.

To distinguish between the reformed and unreformed AS qualifications for ABL, the following exam levels have been added for the AS reformed qualifications for England, Wales, and Northern Ireland. Please note, the grading structure and Tariff points will be the same as the current unreformed AS levels.

Exam level	Description
1E	Reformed AS England
1N	Reformed AS Northern Ireland
1W	Reformed AS Wales

New qualifications, updates and information

As part of our overall communications regarding ABL, further information can be found at www.ucas.com/providers. The ABL summary information document has been updated with the latest details of new awards to be processed. The ABL notes document will be updated and made available for 2016 when we process the main results provision on Friday 12 August.

The following highlights the new awards, and changes to existing awards, which will take place for the summer 2016 results. It is assumed you are aware of how these awards are constructed. If you require further details on the awards and the Tariff points associated with them, please visit www.ucas.com/tariff-tables.

We would like to remind you that when we process the entries and results files, we may have to add additional subject codes for late entries. Please update the reference data on your systems before processing results in the summer, to ensure your reference data is as up-to-date as possible. We will send out a reminder to this effect later in the year.

Updates

For ABL 2016, we are adding a new board code and will be processing additional examination results in the summer. Please ensure you take note of the new awards being processed, which may also mean reference data changes that will need to be implemented on your own systems.

New examination board

WJEC are rebranding with a new awarding body in England. Eduqas is part of WJEC, offering Ofqual reformed qualifications to secondary schools and colleges. WJEC Eduqas qualifications are available in England, the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man, Northern Ireland, and to the independent sector in Wales.

The following new board code will be added:

BOARD NAME = WJEC EDUQAS

BOARD CODE = EDUQAS

AS reformed

From 2015 first teaching, the AS element of reformed A levels in England will be decoupled – this means the AS will be optional.

To distinguish between the reformed and unreformed AS qualifications for ABL, the following exam levels have been added for the AS reformed qualifications for England, Wales, and Northern Ireland. Please note, the grading structure and Tariff points will be the same as the current unreformed AS levels.

New NCFE exam levels for 2016

ABL summary information 2016

NCFE has taken over CACHE, and is a new awarding body to UCAS. The CACHE branding still stands, however, we will now receive results for CACHE directly from NCFE. NCFE also has its own qualifications, which we will be processing for the first time this year.

*Reference data for NCFE examinations will be added by the end of May 2016. All other new qualification reference data is available now – please remember to update your reference tables. We will notify you once the new NCFE qualification reference data has been updated.

UCAS examination results notes

Over the main ABL weekend, we provide an additional notes document to accompany processing. This advises of any late changes, anomalies, and further details to assist you in processing the results and understanding what will be received through UCAS' link products. This document only gets updated during the main ABL weekend for the current cycle. The document for the previous cycle remains available until the new one is published.

Note: changes are highlighted in the exam level table.
