

ADVISER NEWSLETTER

Tips for supporting your students in May

- Applicants who receive all decisions by 14 May must reply by 5 June, or their application will be declined by default (unless they're in Extra). In the Adviser Portal, use 'Has accepted offer(s)' to see who's accepted, and 'Waiting for applicant's reply' to see those who haven't – including their reply by date.
- Adviser Live: Supporting students on results day – Join us at 12:30 on 4 June for expert insights, practical strategies, and live Q&A to help you guide students through results day. Register now
- The Adviser Portal is now open for the 2026 cycle. Make sure multiple staff members are set up so your team is ready to manage applications from day one.
- Students can start their applications on the Hub from 13 May. Get them ready with our personal statement classroom resources.

Alert: The Adviser Portal will not be accessible on 27, 28 and 29 June for maintenance.

UCAS applicant week - 19-23 May

Get your students to join us on socials for a week of inspiration, advice, and resources to support them on their application journey. Everything from student stories, to personal statement support, and the chance to get their questions answered, on our TikTok Live at 16:00 (UK time) on Thursday, 22 May.

Sign up

Get your ticket for the global insights at the International Conference

This year's speaker line-up brings fresh insight from across the globe. With practical sessions on everything from AI in admissions to supporting neurodivergent students, the agenda is packed with content to help you guide applicants with confidence.

See the full agenda | Secure your seat

Careers best practice

New blog post: How to elevate your options and HE days in school or college.

Read the blog